

House Resolution No. 789

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are fully cognizant of the important role which the Boy Scouts of America organization plays in preparing young citizens for the many challenges that await them in the world of adulthood; and

Whereas, Adam Joseph Flesch of Cape Girardeau, Missouri, has enjoyed the opportunity to participate in a wide variety of Scouting activities that have enriched his life immeasurably and that have given him the knowledge and the confidence necessary to become a responsible young adult; and

Whereas, a proud member of Boy Scout Troop 4016, Adam worked exceptionally hard along the trail to Eagle and fulfilled all of the requirements for Scouting's highest advancement award which was presented to him during a solemn Court of Honor ceremony held on the campus of Southeast Missouri State University; and

Whereas, Adam culminated his Scouting career with the successful completion of his Eagle project that he organized, designed, and carried out for the overall benefit of his community; and

Whereas, Adam's Scouting record of achievement as a young citizen determined to excel includes the diligence and the perseverance he demonstrated time and time again to earn the minimum number of merit badges required for the Eagle rank and to serve his Troop in leadership posts intended to show him the way to guide others; and

Whereas, Adam is an outstanding young Missourian who has already demonstrated his potential to help this fair state and the entire nation continue along a path of steady and certain progress with many exciting challenges to be met now and well into the twenty-first century:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, join unanimously in applauding Adam Flesch for the faithful manner in which he pursued his goal to attain the coveted rank of Eagle Scout and in extending hearty congratulations and best wishes to him as he endeavors to utilize all of the valuable lessons that he learned in Scouting to build a future of achievement and success through tireless endeavor in service to his fellow man; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Adam Joseph Flesch, as a mark of our esteem for him.

Offered by _____ Representative Jason G. Crowell
District No. 158

I, Jim Kreider, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Ninety-first General Assembly, Second Regular Session, do certify that the above is a true and correct copy of House Resolution No. 789, adopted March 14, 2002.

Jim Kreider, Speaker

